Journey to the centre of the Earth

The program "Journey to the centre of the Earth" is a program including all the elements of team treasure hunts and underground exploration. Your mission is to hike along the trail full of clues and team tests. By using found objects you will search for hidden instructions, which will lead you to the entrance of the wonderful underground world. There the final test will await. The unusual environment and specifically adapted team tasks will leave an impression on all team members.
To find the entrance and discover the mysteries hidden deep within one of Slovenia's caves will be the task which rewards the team with stronger bonds and an adventure worth remembering. After the finished test an experienced cave guide will accompany you to a tour of the mysterious underground.

Group: up to 25 persons.

Bicycle factory

Your task will be to assemble a children's bike. First of all you will have to acquire the individual parts of the bike through teamwork and exciting exercises and at the same time get to know other members of your team and strengthen communications. Communication will ultimately come in very handy when you are faced with the final task of the day – assembling the bike. Here each member of the team will be tested since only harmonized work of all team m embers will assemble a working bike in the allotted time. This task will be followed with an upgrade of the bike's image where your creativity will come into play.
The day will end with the highlight – donating the bikes to children from families at social risk, chosen by one of Slovenia's charity organizations (you can also choose your own charity organization). Decide on a different, socially responsible teambuilding event, where you will do something good for yourself, your team and at the same time put a smile on the face of a child, since many of them will ride a bicycle for the first time.

Parenzana – The forgotten Railroad

Discover the old route of the part of an old railway, starting by a tunnel in the center of Portorož (Portorose), passing through the coastal countryside of Slovenia and finishing in the town of Isola. A classical incentive program starting in Piran take you on a bicycle tour, spiced with various group activities, all connected to the history of Parenzana and customs of the local people.
The Forgotten Railroad is an easy 3-4 hours long circular activity which takes you through tunnels, vineyards and back country fields, full of interesting facts. It will give you an insight to the soul of this interesting, but still undiscovered part of coastal Europe. Finishing the trip back at Portorož, it will leave a permanent bright mark in your memory.

Group: up to 60 persons.
Price per person: from 67 EUR

Truffles hunt

The truffle hunt begins in the darkness before dawn. Experts say the truffles have the strongest smell at that time and are easily tracked. The leader of the expedition is an experienced truffle picker. He and his guide dog will take you on a hunt for this "marvel of nature". Will you get lucky? After the hunt you will experience a gourmet meal with truffles.

Among vineyards and cellars

If you are looking for a way to entertain your team outdoors the programme "Among vineyards and cellars" is right for you. It's a classic treasure hunt containing elements of hiking, orientation, classic team building activities and wine tastings.

The participants of this programme take part in a short introduction and then set off for a treasure hunt marked of the map (with possible GPS use), to find the hidden treasure. The participants can find the treasure only through teamwork and synergy of all members, since everyone is required to solve the tasks along the way. Only as a well tuned team they will be able to decipher a huge secret, which will reward them greatly. Deep underground you will not remain thirsty, si nce you will be able to pour the wine straight from the barrel, along with home-made cold cuts.

The programme is active and at the same time fun and educational.

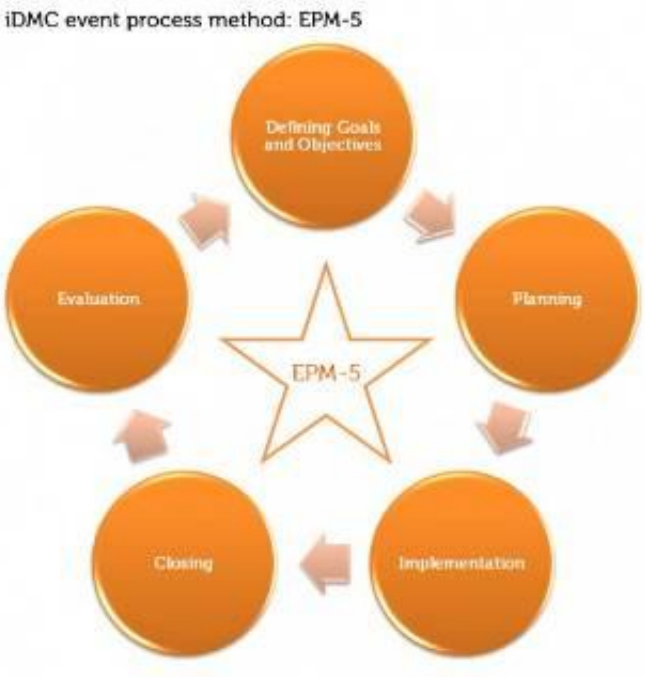
iDMC Event Process Method

Each event is unique and special. Because all of the events are individually adapted to your wishes, something new is added every time and every event follows his own orange thread. On the basis of our knowledge and experiences, we developed our own event process method – EPM-5, which divides the events into 5 segments.



Defining Goals and Objectives

Prior to starting planning, we first set good foundations for the event. At this first level of the process we determine, what the objective of the event is and what goals we wish to accomplish. At this step, a thorough and oriented informative dialog with the customer is of key importance.

Planning

In the second step we start with careful and smart planning and development of the idea into a perfect concept of the event. Planning of the event covers the following fields: counseling at the organization of the event, implementation of project schedule, financial planning, help with the selection of the event site, site inspection, planning the course of the event, networking with business partners etc. We connect everything with an orange thread of ideas. We can organize the entire event or just determine individual segments – the best results are obtained when we work together.

Implementation

In the implementation phase we start up all the ideas and plans. A well prepared plan leaves less space for unpredictable events. If they occur nevertheless, we are always well prepared thanks to our method of work. Before and during the event we take care of the communication with the participants, public, suppliers and partners, we assure a smooth course and implementation of the event, reception of the participants, we organize and monitor the transfers, provide support and escort staff, we coordinate the event and make sure that everything is under control.

Closing

It's a wrap! We still continue to work. In this phase we prepare a summary of the event, the acknowledgments and on your wish we continue to communicate with the participants. We share the materials that were made during the event – audio, video, photo etc. - with you and the participants of your event.

Evaluation

When it comes to recurring events, we strive for constant improvements; we try to make every event better than the last one. During the last phase of our method we gather the information for the preparation of next related event. This information consists of feedback, measuring customer satisfaction and overview of obtained goals. The environmental impact assessment is also a part of our evaluation. On the basis of all this information we prepare the suggestions for improvement.
